

Lincoln Diocesan Guild of Church Bell Ringers

Education Officer

The Lincoln Diocesan Guild of Church Bell Ringers wish to recruit an Education Officer to organise and coordinate the training and education of ringers. The Guild is currently in a period of review and change with the objective of increasing the number of ringers in Lincolnshire and increasing the number of towers where the bells are rung regularly for church and community. This new office is seen as being a key part of achieving these objectives.

The appointment is subject to ratification by the Guild Committee and by members at a Guild AGM.

Terms of Reference

- to promote the best methods of teaching and learning;
- to make available appropriate training courses to meet the full range of abilities and needs including teacher training.
- to establish an annual programme of training including a financial expenditure budget;
- to provide guidance for the establishment and operation of a Ringing Centre(s).

General Duties

This is a new position and the person appointed will be required to lead the setting up of the office and creating a range of policies and activities to meet the Terms of Reference. The Education Officer will be a key member of the Guild Committee who will oversee the work of the new office.
