

BELLRINGING AT THE CHURCH SCHOOLS FESTIVAL

The Young Journalists made their way through Lincoln Cathedral to meet the bellringers. A frame with bells had been set up for the children to have a try. We also spoke to Sue who is from The Lincoln Guild Bellringers.

"It's a bit like riding a bike", she told us. "It's very difficult if you don't know how to do it. It takes a little while and a bit of practice and when you get the hang of it it's really quite nice and relaxing." She mentioned.

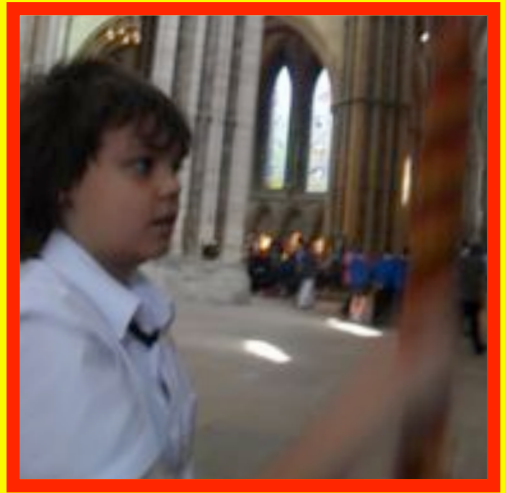

Sue also explained, "Absolutely anyone can learn to be a bellringer. We have bellringers as young as eight years old to bellringers as old as 90 years old."

So it seems it's not as hard as it looks to be a bellringer. Could you be the perfect bellringer for Lincoln Cathedral?

THE YOUNG JOURNALISTS ALL THINK BELLRINGING IS SUPER FUN!!!
